

CMAS and PSAT ELA Data 2018 Mount Evans BOCES

Mt. Evans BOCES - ELA Growth - General

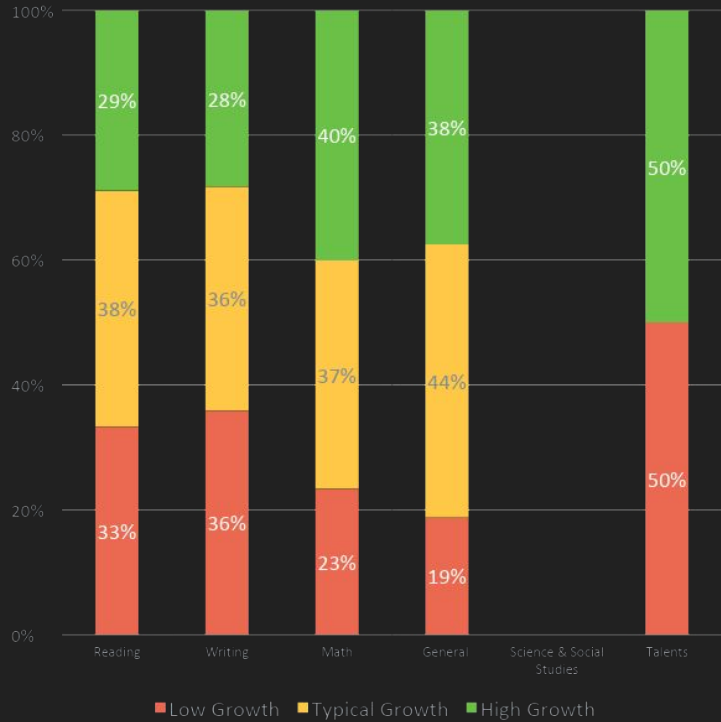

Mt. Evans BOCES - MGP ELA

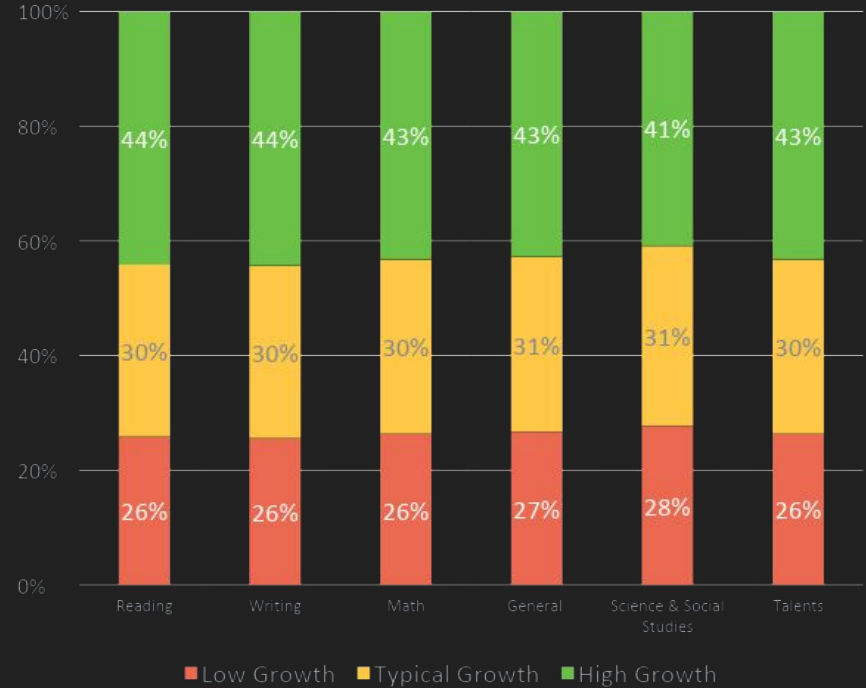

The majority of gifted students for ELA made typical or high growth. GT high growth was 9% higher than the AU non GT growth rate.

Mt. Evans BOCES - ELA Growth by Type

STATE - ELA Growth by Type

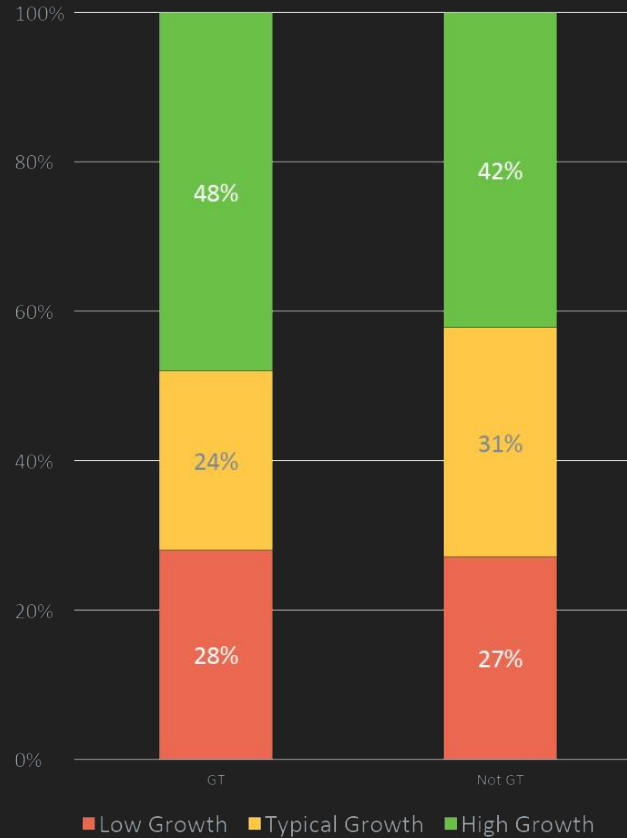

In comparison with the state average for identification types, GT students within the BOCES are above the state average for low growth in reading, writing, and talent categories, below the state average for high growth in reading, and writing.

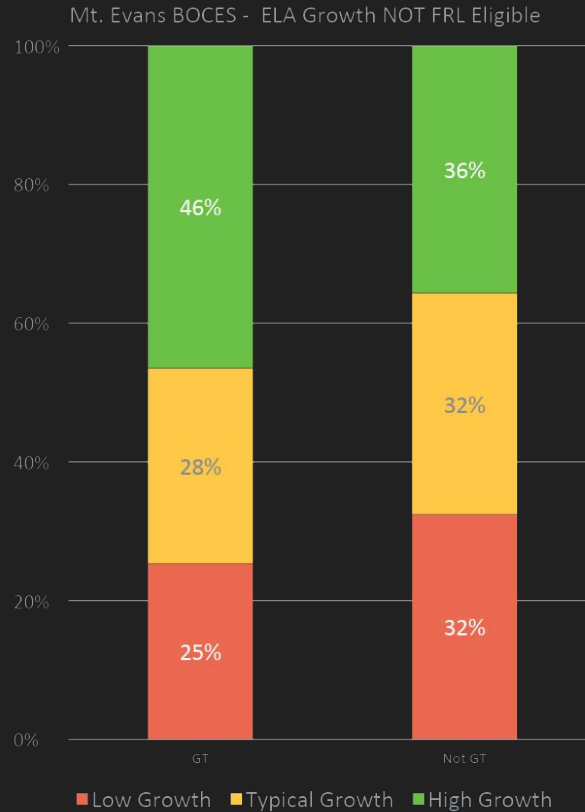

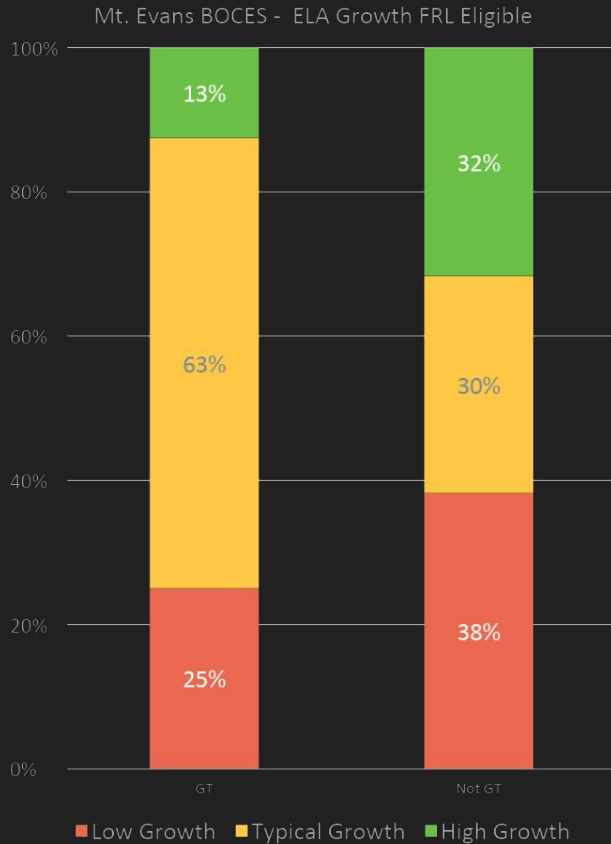

Mt. Evans BOCES - ELA Growth 4th & 5th

Mt. Evans BOCES - ELA Growth 6th-8th Grade

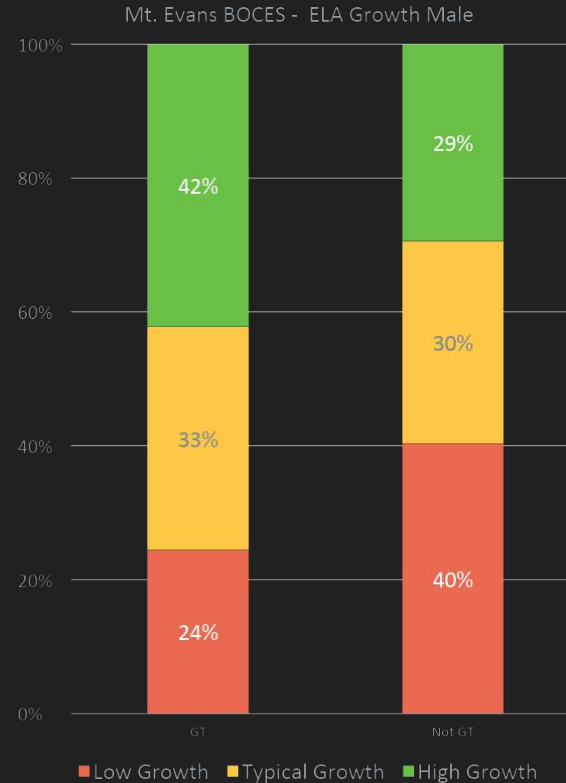

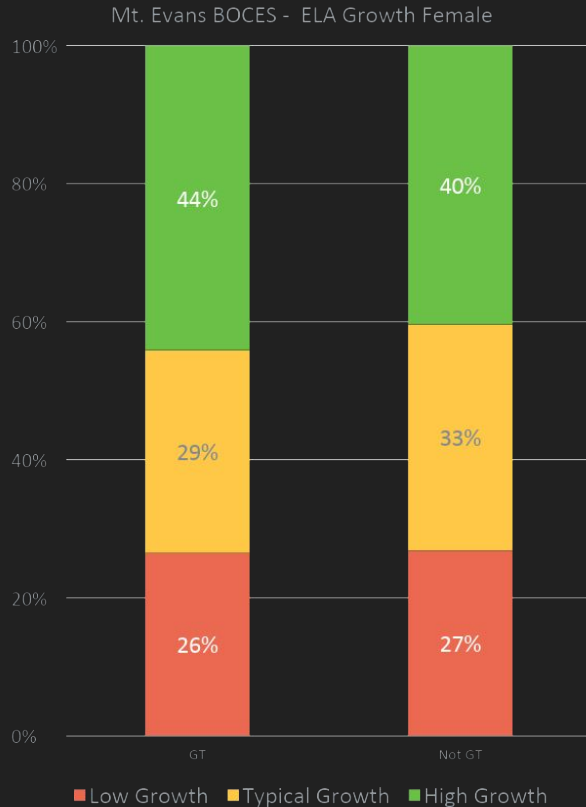

ELA growth rates for GT 4th/5th are significantly above the non GT growth rates. For GT 6th-8th graders, their growth is comparable to non GT students rate of growth in all areas.

For GT students who are free and reduced lunch eligible, growth rates are higher in high and typical growth in comparison to non GT students and 13% lower in the low growth rate category..

For GT students not free and reduced lunch eligible, in comparison to those that are, a higher percentage are in the high growth rate.

ELA Growth Female and Male

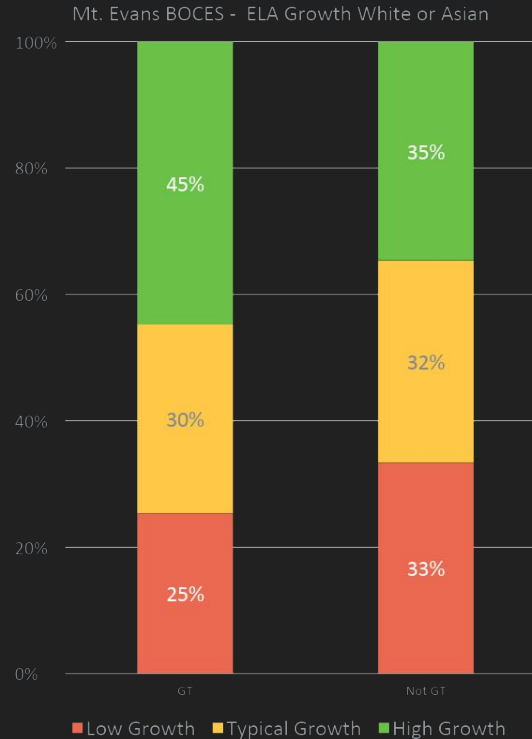

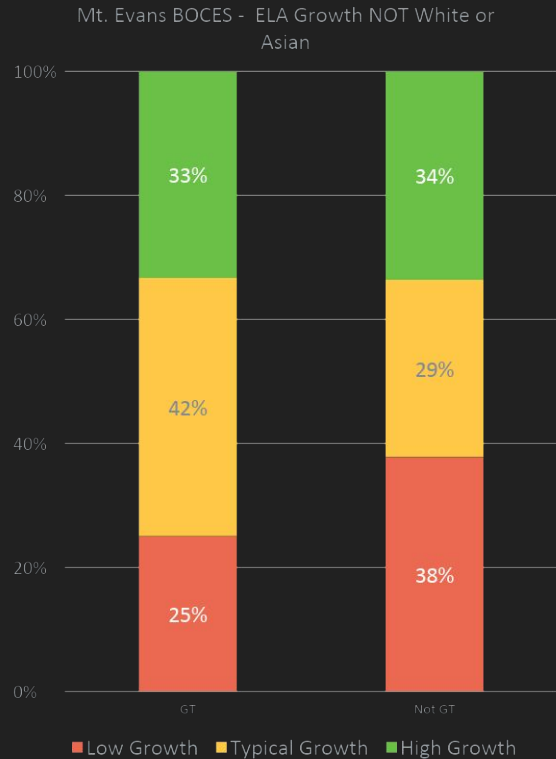

For GT females, growth rates are comparable to non GT females.

For GT males, high and typical growth rates are above non GT males/ There is a 16% difference in the low growth rate between GT and non GT males.

GT females had a 2% higher growth rate than GT males, a 4% lower typical growth rate than males, and a 2% higher low growth rate over GT males.

ELA Growth White/Asian and NonWhite/Asian

In comparison to white or Asian students, not white or Asian students had 12% higher typical growth rate and a 12% lower high growth rate. For low growth, both groups were comparable.

PSAT/SAT – Reading and Writing

Overall gifted students, grades 9, 10, and 11 are performing above non GT peers.

Mt. Evans BOCES - Reading and Writing

